

COTTON MARKETS EASIER. THE REACTION FROM THE TOP CONTINUES. BULLS IN NEW-ORLEANS AGGRESSIVE.

The reaction in cotton that set in early this week continued yesterday, both in Liverpool and America. On the New-York Cotton Exchange quotations opened 5 7/8 points lower, regained all the loss, then weakened again, closing 5 8/16 below Wednesday's final figures. August closed at 6 7/16. It was what might be called a waiting market. News of rains and news of drought came from the Southwest and the traders kept up a running debate over the question of the extent of the reduction in acreage. The general sentiment is that the reduction in acreage this spring will be about 10 per cent.

One of the features of the situation in cotton now and one of the strong supports to the price is the aggressiveness of the New-Orleans bull element. That market, as has been pointed out before in The Tribune, is the greatest spot cotton market in the world, and it has advanced to observing the crop conditions in the West and the New-York or Liverpool market.
